

Metallized film also keeps heat away by reflecting it. It consists of small metallic particles embedded in the film. The metallic helps to strengthen the window and make it more shatter-resistant. But be careful, while this sounds great, it interferes with your radio reception, GPS, and cell phone service.